Activity Description:

The event consisted of four rounds- aptitude test, coding test, technical interview and HR interview. Students were given a dummy job role by us, so that students can study the job role, understand what the dummy company does. Thereafter, the students were asked to send in their resumes.

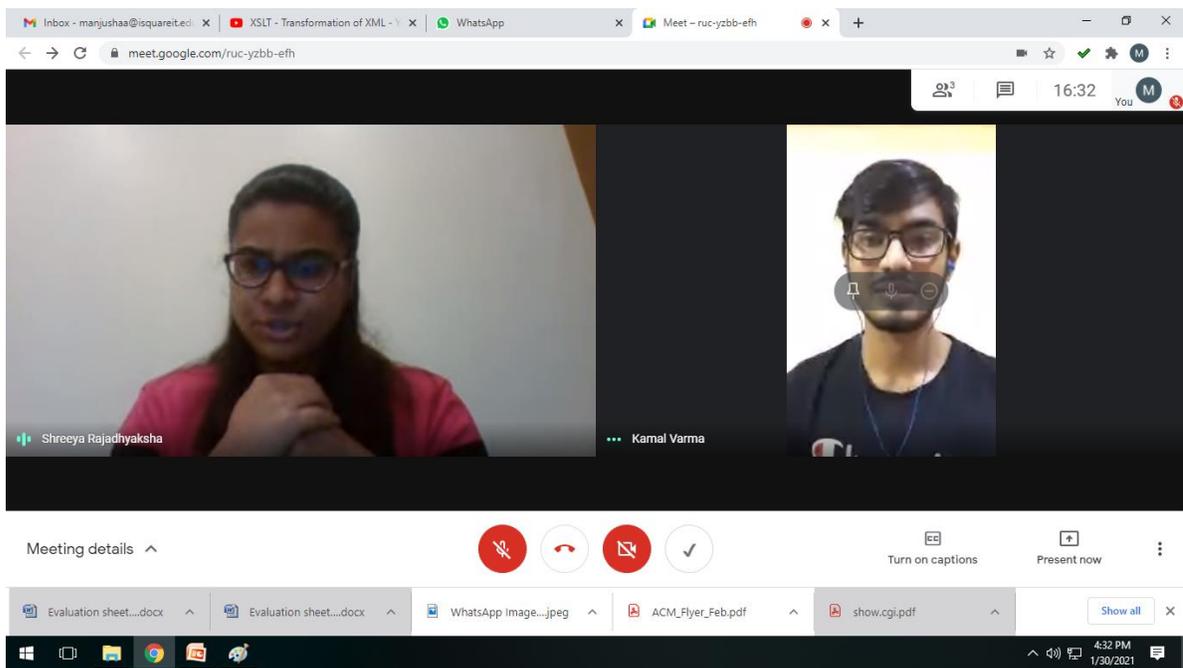

In the first round, i.e, the aptitude test, there were about 80 students who appeared for it. About 60 students cleared the aptitude test and they appeared for the coding test. Coding round consisted of strenuous as well as simple problem statements that required students to apply their basic concepts of programming.

40 students were selected from the coding round and they had to prepare for the technical interview. This technical interview was conducted by our college alumnus- Vamshikiran Morlawar, Rakhi Agrawal and Nithin Myakal. These panelists are highly professional people who are working at good companies. These panelists posed questions to our 40 students regarding their resume, their field of interest, concepts of programming and coding.

Finally, 20 students were shortlisted for the HR interview for which our panelist was Mrs. Shreeya Rajadhyaksha. Finally 10 students were selected for the company's job role.
